

Château Alaverdi 1782

Where 8,000 years of Georgian winemaking meets a new generation of elegance

Where 8,000 years of Georgian winemaking meets a new generation of elegance

About Us

For 8,000 years, Georgia has been the cradle of wine. Château Alaverdi 1782 carries this timeless heritage forward with a modern, château-level approach. Named in honor of the sacred Alaverdi Monastery's restoration in 1782, each bottle captures the terroir, the Georgian sunlight, and eight millennia of winemaking devotion. At Château Alaverdi 1782, we unite the spiritual depth of Georgia's winemaking tradition with the refinement of European craftsmanship. Every drop is a celebration of authent